

The Beautiful South - I'll sail this ship alone

For the 1st conditional phrases, choose the word that you hear Also, fill the gaps with the correct form of the 2nd conditional

If, if you ¹decide/choose that we will always lose well then I'll sail this ship alone
And if, if you decide to give him another ²try/chance
well then I'll sail this ship alone

Well they said if I ³_____ (write) the perfect love song you ⁴_____ (take) me back Well I wrote it but I lost it and now will you take me back anyway?

Now if, if you ⁵insist/believe that this is for the best
well then I'll sail this ship alone
And if, if you ⁶swear/insist that you no longer care
well then I'll sail this ship alone

I'll sail this ship alone between the pain and the pleasure
I'll sail this ship alone amongst the sharks and the treasure
If you would rather go your way then go your way
I'll sail this ship alone

If, if you're afraid that I won't ⁷get/make the grade
well then I'll sail this ship alone
And if, if you ⁸agree to/go out with him instead of me
well then I'll sail this ship alone

Well they said if I ⁹_____ (write) the perfect letter that I ¹⁰_____ (have) a chance Well I wrote it, and you burnt it and now do I have a chance anyway now?

I'll sail this ship alone between the pain and the pleasure
I'll sail this ship alone amongst the sharks and the treasure
If you would rather go your way then go your way
I'll sail this ship alone

Well they said if I ¹¹_____ (burn) myself alive that you ¹²_____ (come) running back
